Fiction – TV Movies

Wings of Christmas

Wings of Christmas Křídla vánoc

NEW

We all carry certain dreams and secret wishes inside us. We know about some; some of them we'd like to suppress and some we allow to ourselves to be said out loud or even lived out. Heroes of our story will get a chance to wish something and their lives will aim in the directions they have determined. A chain of "accidents" will grant them what they'd wished and they get their chance to live it up. In our lives we are responsible not only for everything we do but also for what we say, what we think and what we are yearning for. Our mind's eye can never beat the imagination of the universe when the facts begin to fit together.

The greater part of our film takes place in a shopping mall during Christmas time. Stories of four friends who work there will intermingle. Action lasts only a few days but it would change their lives and their angle of view at it. Everything coheres with everything here. What we perceive as an accident has actually a strictly determinate role.

A Soul to Redeem

A Soul to Redeem Zádušní oběť

The detective story set in the early 20th century is full of suspense, twists and emotions. Love, hate and desire for revenge are the strongest motivation for the trio of its protagonists. Military trenches are still full of war victims when superintendent Mondl arrives from Vienna in a small Czech town with the task to track down the serial killer of young men and dispel all doubts that the murders are ritual. Who is the perpetrator, and what is his motive? Suspicion gradually centres on a few persons, including Alma. Once employed as a cook, she now takes care of a little orphaned girl Lea, previously a patient of a mental sanatorium, daughter of her deceased former employer. The experienced detective wants to believe that there's a streak of good waiting to be released in every human being. Human animals once damaged the innocent soul, and got their comeuppance. The detective finds the truth, and opts for justice. But merciless fate soon pays him back!

Murder in Polná 1-2

Zločin v Polné 1-2

NEW

The film, directed by Viktor Polesný, describes the events which triggered off the largest wave of anti-Semitism ever recorded in the Czech Lands. It rose in 1899, following the brutal murder of a young girl called Anežka Hružová. The anti-Jewish mood was due to a judicial error. The killer did not commit sexual offence. To the local doctors it seemed that there's not enough coagulated blood on the scene of the crime, and the answer to the question where the "missing" blood had gone suggested itself: it was Easter, the Jewish Passover time, and the Jews had used it in matzos. Unjustly convicted for the murder thus was a young Jew Leopold Hilsner. And it was the future first President of Czechoslovakia professor T.G. Masaryk who, as few others, refused to believe the superstitions about ritual killing. As did Zdeno Auředníček, a young lawyer who defended Hilsner and managed to get the sentence reduced from death to life. Both men never stopped striving for Hilsner's rehabilitation, which however didn't come until nearly a hundred years after the crime.

The Case of the Exorcist 1-3

Případ pro exorcistu 1-3

NEW

Detectives from the Holy Trinity – three crime miniseries (The Case of the Exorcist, Blue Shadows and Five Dead Dogs), with the episodes taking place in Olomouc city and its neighbourhood. The chief characters – inspectors Major Výrová, Mráz, and their controversial boss – colonel Vitouš investigate murders and expose a complicated context including e. g. the exorcising ritual, corruption and holdup with robbery.

Detectives from the violent crime department of Olomouc police are investigating a bizarre and shocking murder of a young girl. All indications point to performance of the exorcising ritual. The investigation brings the detective to a country parish, the church circles, and also among university students and their teachers.

The series is directed by Jan Hřebejk, one of the best present-time Czech film directors (Big Beat, Divided we Fall, Pupendo, Up and Down etc.) Framed by an authentic and realistic description of the criminal police work, the series aspires to meet the criteria of the crime genre inspired by the British literary and film tradition.

I, Mattoni

I, Mattoni Já, Mattoni

NEW

Biographical serial about Heinrich Mattoni, capitalist of the early period of the Austro-Hungarian Empire, founder of the world-famous mineral water bottling company, a man of a dynamic and controversial fate.

The thirteen episodes seek to amuse the television viewer by gentle irony, and in the spirit of The Forsyte Saga, they narrate the life story of the entrepreneur, a hero of his time, a great lover desperately longing for genuine human dignity.

The backbone of the story is a lifelong, constant struggle between two strong personalities, Heinrich Mattoni and his wife Wilhemina. It is taking place long before the fulfilment of the idea of gender equality, a time of patriarchal masculinity, which adds to its intensity and poignancy. And as in probably most marriages at all times – it is a struggle in which love and hatred are often confused with each other. The narrative about the seller of the today legendary Mattoni mineral water and his energetic wife covers a long period of time, from roughly mid-1830s till 1910.

It is set in the picturesque environment of Kyselka Spa, the colonnades of Karlovy Vary (Carlsbad), Schönbrunn, the streets of period Prague and New York.

In Rage Rapl

NEW

Detective Kuneš has a problem once again: he's lambasted the boyfriend of his ex-wife, and is threatened with dismissal from the police service. His high-ranking (female) boss has a solution for him: "removing" him on an internships in a back-of-beyond borderland region. But there's a fly in the ointment. His real mission is to unravel the two-year old case of the murder of policewoman Wágnerová, the investigation of which has reached an impasse. But the crime rate in the borderlands is one of the highest in the whole country – involving smuggling, drug production, poaching, prostitution and murders. Kuneš has to deal with one difficult case after another, and it takes quite some time before he can start doing what he's sent to do, and then he does it in fact by coincidence.

The "In Rage" serial is a follow-up of the series Circus Bukowsky, in which the unconventional detective Kuneš is one of the chief characters and the chief investigator.

THE FIRST REPUBLIC

The First Republic První republika

NEW EPISODES
IN PRODUCTION

A saga capturing the atmosphere of the period between 1918 and 1945, referred to as the First (independent Czechoslovak) Republic. First series ends in year 1922.

The gripping serial tells the story of three generations of the ramified Valenta family which had grown rich on commissions received in the period of the Great War and moved from its rural home to the Prague district of Podolí. This suburb of Prague, then still comprising only wasteland and meadows, with a few old factory stacks looming up, is characterised by post-war poverty, but the enterprising Valentas transform it. Reigning in the family is rivalry between the brothers: Jaroslav, the eldest son, grasps the opportunity to expand the family business. He feels that he'll earn more money if he doesn't trade honestly. Vladimír, the younger one, who's just returned from the war, shares neither his brother's ambitions nor his business philosophy. In fact they have only one thing in common: they both love Klára. But only she alone knows why, years ago, she chose Jaroslav for husband. Moreover there's a great mystery: on the day of Klára's engagement to Jaroslav, her parents disappeared. Everybody is convinced that her father embezzled the corporate money and together with his wife fled to America. But both brothers know that they are dead. Who killed them, and what will the investigation of the old pre-war murder reveal?

The serial depicts the upper stratum that contributed most to shaping the First Republic, and set political and social standards. The fates of the characters, representing a variety of social strata, from the élite to the class of workers and peasants, will blend with the period events, recalling some important moments in Czechoslovak history.

The Labyrinth Labyrint

NEW EPISODES IN PRODUCTION

Modern crime series, inspired by the Nordic noir dramas.

The find in the Moravian woods of the body of a famous regional politician, killed in the style of the medieval torture practices and carefully arranged so as to create a weird scene, sets off a police chase of the sadistic perpetrator. The killer complicates the job of the investigation team by a series of murders which shock the inhabitants of the whole region and the investigators themselves by their cruel rituality. Efforts for finding the link between them and the current political activities bring no result, as the roots of the case are in the distant past.

The Life and Time of Judge A.K. Život a doba soudce A.K.

NEW EPISODES
IN PRODUCTION

Dramatic series portraying the environment of a municipal court of law and the private life of the judges. Adam, the central character, is a divorce and civil law arbitrator. He does not deal with criminals, murders and other serious criminal offences, but just with everyday life in which all parties have their own truth, for which they are ready even to ruin their fellow beings.

It's not a profession of Adam's choice. He wished to be a photographer, working for a newspaper or periodical, travelling round the world, making reportages. But first of all, he's an obedient son of a respected lawyer family... In actual fact, the most interesting thing about him is that he's not cut out for the job at all. He is well-read, thoughtful, good-looking, gentle, introvert, but also vulnerable, sensitive and empathic man. The very opposite of the glorified type of a "civil servant who puts observance of general norms above individual, ethical approach".

Watching the episodes we will see how the negotiating parties enter and withdraw from his life. We will stay with him in the courtroom as well as his bedroom, get to know his family, and have the ever more disquieting opportunity to "share" his thoughts and follow the process of arriving at the judgement.

The Zodiac Murders

Vraždy v kruhu

The Zodiac Murders series does not aspire to rank among other popular crime serials; it seeks to become one of a new, modern style. The line connecting all its parts are the signs of the zodiac. Each of the twelve episodes deals with a mysterious crime, of characteristics associated with the respective sign. Apart from the standard crime investigation elements, in each episode we can follow a "private" line, represented by an amorous triangle kept secret, formed by major Holina, the intelligent and competent head of the investigation team, his subordinate captain Rostia Bor, confined to wheelchair due to an accident, and his wife, psychologist Sabina, who studies and uses astrology for psychological personality analysis, thus helping the two detectives in their work.

Alva is an impish bespectacled ginger, his hair tussled all the time, who dreams of the achievements of the third millennium. And he invents things which, he believes, will come in handy in it. Jerboas Tarbíci

Eyes like a mouse's, legs like a kangaroo's, tail like a lion's – and jumping like a flea. Such animal does not exist, you say? But it does! It is called jerboa, and lives in the African desert. The protagonists of this series, the enterprising jerboa siblings Tom and Tina, set out on an expedition into wild nature every day, taking care to steer clear of the "awful marabou", as their Dad advises them. Marabou is a large African stork, and a traditional, sworn enemy of the jerboas. But what Tom and Tina's father does not know is that the marabou that they have befriended is still tiny, and the only "awful" thing about it is its clumsiness. And if they did not keep an eye on it, it would certainly come to some harm. And so Tom, Tina and the little marabou meet secretly and play together, because – similar to children – they choose their friends not depending on which species they belong to, but according to their character. In the individual episodes we will also make our acquaintance of other exotic animals, for instance the Indian flying fox, tortoise, monkey, snake and parrot.

Crown Prince

Crown Prince Korunní princ

NEW

A tale about two princes, one princess and a magic potion. Prince Charles refuses to accept the fact that it's his elder brother John who, by law and tradition, is the successor to the throne. He steals a magic potion, kept in the Forbidden Chamber, which causes that Prince John, whom he makes drink it, loses memory and disappears in the Spellbound Forest from which there's no return. It seems that nothing stands in Charles's way to the throne any longer, but, as often happens, things take a different turn. Though the witty and thrilling tale rests on a solid classical basis, its conception is totally modern, full of twists and gentle humour.

Little Man

Little Man Malý Pán

NEW

A classical puppet film, with the story set in a real forest environment, presented in a manner encouraging children's imagination.

Little Man lives happily in his small world, and as long as he has enough noodles, there's nothing he scrambles for. But he dreams, and as we know, dreams may cause problems: they don't let people (small and big alike) in peace. When the Little Man wakes up, to his surprise he finds that there's something missing in his life. So he leaves his cosy home (however reluctantly), and sets out on a journey which, he hopes, will help him get to the root of the problem. Who knows what's awaiting him at its end?

Fishy if there are no Fish

Kdyby byly ryby

The Kingdom of Three Lakes has been struck by an evil curse. The sorcery of magic beings has removed all fish from the local lakes, in order to punish the arrogant King Boleslav for having stolen the prophetic Fish Eye for his new wife, the haughty Queen Gabriela. And as it often happens, worst affected by the punishment of potentates are the common people, in this case those for whom fishing is the main livelihood. And so they start revolting. Meanwhile the thief and swindler Nevergive tries to worm his way into the favour of the royal family, claiming that he knows how to break the curse. He hopes to be helped by the magic wand which he's cunningly stolen from the magic beings, and thanks to it suddenly wields great power. But young fisherman Ludvik turns up in the kingdom, and there's hope that he will be the one to break the curse, save the kingdom and win the hand of Princess Lidunka.

Children & Family – Fairy Tales

Gorilla Stories

Gorilla Stories Gorilí povídání

NEW

The series in 13 parts follows up the popular "animal tales" of Václav Chaloupek. This time we will leave the nature of our country and set out to make our acquaintance with attractive African animals. Little Nuru, born to his gorilla parents in the Prague Zoo in 2013, and his Auntie Kamba, the only one among the Prague gorillas that was born in the African wilderness, will be our guides. In each of the episodes, we will learn something about the gorillas' life, and Kamba's narration will take us to her native Africa. Together with Nuru, we will not only see how gorillas live in wild nature, but also get to know other African animals. A short fairy tale is added to every "documentary" part.

IN PRODUCTION

Six top-ranking performers – violoncellist Jiří Bárta, clarinetist Ludmila Peterková, guitarist Pavel Steidel, pianist Martin Kasík, violinist Josef Špaček and French horn player Kateřina Javůrková, as presented by six outstanding film directors.

The documentary series devoted to classical music offers the viewer a glimpse of the "backstage" of the musicians' performance, showing them in moments of intensive work, when studying the scores of particular compositions. Each of the parts provides interesting and little-known information about both the composer and the musician who has decided to grapple with the master's music. The unifying element of the series is the aim to capture the relation between the performer and the composition.

Seeing the Home Countryside

Seeing the Home Countryside Krajinou domova

NEW

A narrative documentary series, capturing in an imposing manner the unique character of Bohemian and Moravian landscape in the course of all seasons of the year. In eight parts it presents e.g. mountains rising above the upper forest border, steppes, karsts, hilly regions, uplands and lowlands with floodplain forests... Each piece of countryside is presented in its original and wildest form, including dozens of rare plant and animal species. Equally distinctive are the human settlements, castles, châteaux and villages, none inseparable from the rest. Behind all this is not only the situation of the country in the centre of the European continent, but mainly its geological diversity, from which many of its other characteristics are derived. The series Seeing the Home Countryside is a gripping story about the world around us, singular in terms of its natural and cultural wealth.

The series was made with the use of state-of-the-art filming techniques and technologies, such as time-lapse documenting, specially constructed drones, taking viewers near unique natural phenomena, 4K resolution etc...

NEW

Your life is an extreme situation for them. They are young, pampered, and only just starting to familiarise themselves with the environment and the professions about which they have so far had a vague idea but also great preconceptions.

The Prague "Golden Youth" are learning how people live in other regions of the Czech Republic. Five spoilt youngsters from the capital city have to cope with things to which they are not accustomed – hard manual work and rough living conditions. For five weeks they become now butchers at a slaughterhouse, now inhabitants of a Romany ghetto, participants in an army survival course, peasants in a Czech village in Romania Banat, and nurses in a care home for the elderly.

What lesson will the five protagonists learn during the five weeks? Will they revise their prejudices and their behaviour of pampered youngsters? Will they change their attitude to life under the impression of the strong experiences? Will they prove that they're worth more than may seem at first sight?

Herbarium

Herbarium Herbář

NEW EPISODES IN PRODUCTION

All three series are book best-sellers in the Czech Republic

Herbarium is an original „herbal show“ introducing viewers to common plants and herbs. Its moderators, mums Kateřina and Linda, concentrate on the commonest ones and their use in everyday practice – in cooking but also in the cosmetics industry. The Herbarium second series abounds in wise advice coming from grannies and found in old herbariums, teaching us how to keep in good health and spirit by means of herbs, fruit and vegetables. In the last series our guides look for quick and effective relief from common ailments, such as flu, backache, painful joints or bad mood. They reach for medicinal plants which grow in our surroundings but we are often unaware of their beneficial effects.

Zátopek Zátopek

NEW

Emil Zátopek's life passed through a history that has changed the whole running world. In 1951 he broke the hour for running 20 km and three years later he became the first athlete to break the 10,000 meters under 29 minutes. Zátopek is considered to be one of the greatest runners of the 20th century. He is still the only one who won the 5,000 meters, 10,000 meters, and marathon at the same Olympic games.

Emil was born to a poor family with seven siblings around. He had to start working in the Bata shoe factory when he was sixteen. One afternoon a sports coach came in the factory and chose four blue collar workers to become runners. Emil was one of them. Even though Zátopek claimed he couldn't be a good runner, the doctor persuaded him to try it at least because he could see that Emil really was in a proper condition to compete. When he started to run he suddenly wanted to win. Emil finished second and that was the way everything started... After the great success he began to train in a local athletic club where he developed his own training's methods based on the information he had found in books about the great Finnish Olympian Paavo Nurmi. The training program included e.g. interval training, hypoventilation training, running in heavy boots. None of the runners had trained like that before.

The modern and dynamic film will combine authentic archives and a documentary of today's runners trying to go through Zátopek's training program. The film will also focus on Emil's personal life and his struggle with communist regime.
