

Angel of the Lord 2 Anděl Páně 2

NEW

Angel of the Lord 2 is a loose sequel to the family fairy tale directed by Jiri Strach. Petronel, an angel, is still working at the Heaven's gates but is confident that he deserves a better function. His everlasting tempter Uriah, a devil, takes up tempting him. All one has to do to know all that God knows is pick an apple from the tree of knowledge! And then, the route to the well-deserved acknowledgement is free. Petronel and Uriah then proceed to argue about the apple, and the results are catastrophic. The precious fruit falls all the way down to the Earth. The confused angel and his friend, the devil-tempter, have to quickly enter the human world, find the apple of Knowledge and bring it back. The night before Saint Nicolase's day they get tangled up in a peculiar whirl. They meet little Agnes and her beautiful mother, a crew of deceitful carolers, the greedy Košťál and the likable Sausage-seller. Before they manage to find the apple and bring it back where it belongs, they first have to endure a great adventure and get through quite a few dangerous setups. And after a row of both human and divine trials, our heroes find out that the true route to knowledge lies in knowing one's own self, in discovering the power of friendship, in love and the will to forgive.

The Good Plumber

Instalatér z Tuchlovic

NEW

Lubos is a plumber by trade, a very good plumber – though most people see him as a simpleton. He lives with his mother, keeps to a few childhood friends whose views confuse him more and more, loves his local sports teams and retains a boyish standoffishness when it comes to his interactions with women, something that frustrates his mother to no end. Many take one look at him and call him hopeless, a failure. For those who take a second look, though, they find that Lubos is a giver, a sharer, and more times than not he gives you what you need. Unaware – or uncaring – of others' opinions, Lubos lives his life leisurely, with a blithe certainty that he has all he needs – until he meets the wife of a new referral. After that, very little in Lubos's life remains certain or simple.

Monster Monstrum

NEW

The story of sculptor Otakar Švec, who, as chance would have it, was awarded the commission for designing the giant Stalin's monument on the Letná plain overlooking the centre of Prague, takes place on the background of a turbulent time. Paradoxically all he wished for was to keep the love of his beautiful wife Vlasta, the respect of his colleagues, and last but not least, to live in a dignified way. Apart from the Švec couple, it is also the story of Pavel, young student of sculpting, who – by the respect for his teacher and at the same time because of his irresistible attraction by Vlasta, creates a complicated relational triangle. In contrast with the huge mass of the granite monument, the fate of the humans is heading for a tragic end.

A Soul to Redeem Zádušní oběť

NEW

The detective story set in the early 20th century is full of suspense, twists and emotions. Love, hate and desire for revenge are the strongest motivation for the trio of its protagonists. Military trenches are still full of war victims when superintendent Mondl arrives from Vienna in a small Czech town with the task to track down the serial killer of young men and dispel all doubts that the murders are ritual. Who is the perpetrator, and what is his motive? Suspicion gradually centres on a few persons, including Alma. Once employed as a cook, she now takes care of a little orphaned girl Lea, previously a patient of a mental sanatorium, daughter of her deceased former employer. The experienced detective wants to believe that there's a streak of good waiting to be released in every human being. Human animals once damaged the innocent soul, and got their comeuppance. The detective finds the truth, and opts for justice. But merciless fate soon pays him back!

The First Republic II

První republika II

NEW

The affairs and quarrels of two bitter brothers, crimes and amorous imbroglis are returning in the thirteen-episode continuation of the series The First Republic. The events of the second series take place eight years later, in 1928. Jaroslav Valenta, Alois's older son, has been released from prison and is trying to return to family life. But he is not welcome there: they would rather he leave and go to the countryside to work alongside his father on the farm. Brother Vladimír is heading a carter's business, where he is drawing mainly from his legionnaire past and contacts made during the war in France. Vladimír's wife Magdalena has taken over her family's business, thereby making her father's political career possible. Jaroslav, however, is not willing to give his rights up and is determined to win back his reputation, respect, business success and the love of his two grown daughters. To achieve this objective, he has to turn to the people he got to know in prison and who occasionally complicate his life. Moreover, he begins an intimate relationship with the governess Maria, whose past can lead to his downfall again. A series of events begins to unfold that not only jeopardises Jaroslav, but his closest friends and family as well.

THE LIFE AND TIME OF JUDGE A.K. II

The Life and Time of Judge A.K. II Život a doba soudce A.K. II

NEW

This time round, Adam Klos is not judging family disputes, as he did in the first series; instead, he is a criminal judge and is dealing with the most serious crimes and challenging criminal cases. Most of the cases in the second series have been inspired by actual crimes. There is even a fundamental change in Adam's personal life: he is looking after Laura's daughter and is living with his mother, who had been living alone after her husband, Adam's father, died. Adam's neighbours are also creating an important storyline. Very strange things are happening in the villa next door that are stoking his imagination, and when he begins to put two and two together, he begins to discuss his thoughts with his friend Igor... In each episode, viewers first learn what happened in the given case. They thus have the chance to observe how the matter is relativized and obfuscated by everyone during the trial. On one side, there is the public prosecutor analysing with the police the evidence, the proposed sentence and the weaknesses in the defence; on the other, there are the lawyers with the defendants recapitulating their own strategy and looking for holes in the indictment. This all culminates at the court, headed by Adam Klos, where the battle begins and where victory or defeat can mean loss of freedom and a life in ruins.

The Labyrinth II

The Labyrinth II Labyrint II

NEW

Major Remeš's team, reinforced by new member Richard Franěk, is investigating the murder of Monika, an attractive girl killed in an extremely brutal and agonising way. There are several potential perpetrators. One of them, to whom clues lead the detectives, is Osvald, an experienced brute, because of whom the case is growing ever more complicated. Through his agency Remeš's team is joined also by detective Martina Tesařová who investigated Osvald's violent acts in the past when she worked for the vice squad. While checking on potential perpetrators from Monika's surroundings, the detectives still have no idea that their case is evidently closely linked with a certain capable lobbyist. This man, so far basking in the glare of his dubious business, finds himself on too thin ice, and his only rescuer is defence lawyer Kobza, who however has completely different troubles to deal with.

Bohemia Bohéma

NEW

Series of six parts, inspired by the lives of Czech actors, actresses and film makers during the 2nd World War and in the post-war period. Associated with the most-demanded film studios of the time – Prague's Barrandov – were such names as Oldřich Nový, Vlasta Burian, Jaroslav Marvan, Zdeněk Štěpánek and others. But what was the price for keeping a role, and how the actors once applauded by the crowds had to pay for it after the war, when they were accused of collaboration with the Nazis and brought before the "people's court of law"? Bohemia is about the envy, desire to feature on the theatre stage and in the film studio at any cost, and turbulent political changes reflected in the life stories of the crème de la crème of Czech film.

GENDARMES FROM LUHAČOVICE

Gendarmes from Luhačovice Četníci z Luhačovic

NEW

A series of historical crime stories from the beginnings of the so-called First (independent Czechoslovak) Republic, almost a century ago. The war was still going on for a couple of months, influencing the situation. The series describes it as we perhaps do not know it. As regards the public police – they had quickly to get rid of their bad reputation as "Austria's henchmen", and so the main qualification of the commander assuming his duties in the spa town of Luhačovice is the fact that he speaks Czech. All the two newcomers joining his team in the chaos know about police work is what they have learned in a preparatory course and what's written in textbooks. And before they can unpack, there's the first case they will have to deal with.

Gnome

Gnome Trpaslík

NEW

Unconventional comedy series, telling the story of an ordinary family living a routine life and, as is often the case, there's always something that they are not satisfied with. Father Jarda and mother Katka haven't been exactly seeing eye to eye for quite some time, 15-year-old son Luděk studies at high school but would much prefer being a hip-hoper, and youngest Janička would like to become a lawyer, which her parents frown upon. Her model is uncle Vladimír, the most-feared local lawyer. And grandad Václav does everything in his power to avoid moving to a care home for the elderly. Their stereotyped life style in a small town is significantly changed by an encounter with an ancient supernatural force.

In Rage Rapl

NEW

Detective Kuneš has a problem once again: he's lambasted the boyfriend of his ex-wife, and is threatened with dismissal from the police service. His high-ranking (female) boss has a solution for him: "removing" him on an internships in a back-of-beyond borderland region. But there's a fly in the ointment. His real mission is to unravel the two-year old case of the murder of policewoman Wágnerová, the investigation of which has reached an impasse. But the crime rate in the borderlands is one of the highest in the whole country – involving smuggling, drug production, poaching, prostitution and murders. Kuneš has to deal with one difficult case after another, and it takes quite some time before he can start doing what he's sent to do, and then he does it in fact by coincidence.

The "In Rage" serial is a follow-up of the series Circus Bukowsky, in which the unconventional detective Kuneš is one of the chief characters and the chief investigator.

The Lowbrow Family II

Mazalové II

NEW

The continuation of the successful series takes us back to Oreb castle, where affable ghosts and the ghastly Lowbrow family live under one roof. We will meet our favourite characters from the first series: the stately white lady Albina, the chivalrous knight Theobald, the impetuous alchemist Balon, the water goblin Dušička and the magic mirror. Living with the Lowbrows in one castle is not easy at all for the ghosts, especially when Hugo and Růžena have the incessant desire to get rich at any cost. Just as unbearable, are their two children, who are now a little older. The ghosts have a new problem to deal with, however, as if their failure to organise the fairy-tale symposium was not enough: The Book of Spells has gone missing and there is a chance it may get into the wrong hands. Getting it back will be very difficult, even for our ghosts...

Children Online

Children Online Děti Online

NEW

A world in which an ever higher number of children spend their free time in a virtual world instead of on a real playground...

This documentary film presents the youngest generation as so-called "digital natives", for whom the world of the Internet is an important part of their everyday life and a natural process of discovery. The personal stories of the three protagonists draw attention to some hazards of the Internet – such as cyber-bullying and cyber-grooming. Testifying to the seriousness of these phenomena is not only the rise in the number of children who turn with the above-mentioned problems to helplines, with some unfortunately becoming victims of suicides caused by cyberbullying...

Leoš Janáček

Leoš Janáček: From the House of the Dead

NEW

Leoš Janáček: Z mrtvého domu

Recording of the opera performance in the National Theatre of Prague. The novel of F. M. Dostoyevsky (also published under the titles Notes or Memoirs from the Dead House), in which he described his personal experiences as the tsar's political prisoner, inspired Leoš Janáček so strongly that he based on it his last opera. The story is situated in a tsarist prison, and the content is a narration of the individual prisoners' life stories. In Janáček's musical rendering, the memories of the suffering and misery which had been the prime origin of the committed crimes are full of love of life, compassion with human pain and thirst for freedom. Featuring Štefan Margita, František Zahradníček, Michal Bragagnolo, Josef Moravec et al.

Les Ballets Bubeníček – Orpheus

Les Ballets Bubeníček – Orpheus

Les Ballets Bubeníček – Orfeus

NEW

This stage play is freely inspired by the myth of Orpheus. Jiří and Otto Bubeníček deal with the descent into the depths of one's self. The Orpheus project formally goes beyond the boundaries of dance, physical movement, words and music. German dancer Anna Herrmann, popular Slovak actor Csongor Kassai and two musicians – Czech cellist Terezie Kovalová and French violinist Annabelle Dugast – appear alongside Jiří and Otto Bubeníček. The Bubeníček brothers gave this amazing performance at the New Stage of the National Theatre in Prague at the official opening of the 53rd Annual 2016 Golden Prague (Zlatá Praha) International Dance Festival.

Solo For Three

Brel – Vysotsky – Kryl – Solo For Three
Brel – Vysockij – Kryl – Sólo pro tři

NEW

A riveting performance inspired by the life and songs of three singing poets from the 2nd half of the last century: Jacques Brel, Vladimir Vysotsky and Karel Kryl. Although they spoke different languages, they could be universally understood. They were the voice of their time, the voice of their nation, but first and foremost the voice of the human heart irrespective of time and space.

This dance theatre piece by director and choreographer Petr Zuska is unique in its symbolism, detailed elaboration of the story and ingenious directorial concept.

Solo For The Two Of Us

Solo For The Two Of Us

Sólo pro nás dva

NEW

Petr Zuska's dance theatre piece Solo For The Two Of Us comprises several levels at once, particularly the relationship between a man and a woman, between a person and the demon hiding inside of them, between the individual and the society of which they are a part, and between us and nature. And last but not least, it is a solo for Jaromír Nohavica and Beata Bocek, whose music was Petr Zuska's inspiration this time round.
