

Monster Monstrum

NEW

The story of sculptor Otakar Švec, who, as chance would have it, was awarded the commission for designing the giant Stalin's monument on the Letná plain overlooking the centre of Prague, takes place on the background of a turbulent time. Paradoxically all he wished for was to keep the love of his beautiful wife Vlasta, the respect of his colleagues, and last but not least, to live in a dignified way. Apart from the Švec couple, it is also the story of Pavel, young student of sculpting, who – by the respect for his teacher and at the same time because of his irresistible attraction by Vlasta, creates a complicated relational triangle. In contrast with the huge mass of the granite monument, the fate of the humans is heading for a tragic end.

A Soul to Redeem Zádušní oběť

NEW

The detective story set in the early 20th century is full of suspense, twists and emotions. Love, hate and desire for revenge are the strongest motivation for the trio of its protagonists. Military trenches are still full of war victims when superintendent Mondl arrives from Vienna in a small Czech town with the task to track down the serial killer of young men and dispel all doubts that the murders are ritual. Who is the perpetrator, and what is his motive? Suspicion gradually centres on a few persons, including Alma. Once employed as a cook, she now takes care of a little orphaned girl Lea, previously a patient of a mental sanatorium, daughter of her deceased former employer. The experienced detective wants to believe that there's a streak of good waiting to be released in every human being. Human animals once damaged the innocent soul, and got their comeuppance. The detective finds the truth, and opts for justice. But merciless fate soon pays him back!

Fiction – Miniseries

Murder in Polná 1-2

Zločin v Polné 1-2

NEW

The film, directed by Viktor Polesný, describes the events which triggered off the largest wave of anti-Semitism ever recorded in the Czech Lands. It rose in 1899, following the brutal murder of a young girl called Anežka Hružová. The anti-Jewish mood was due to a judicial error. The killer did not commit sexual offence. To the local doctors it seemed that there's not enough coagulated blood on the scene of the crime, and the answer to the question where the "missing" blood had gone suggested itself: it was Easter, the Jewish Passover time, and the Jews had used it in matzos. Unjustly convicted for the murder thus was a young Jew Leopold Hilsner. And it was the future first President of Czechoslovakia professor T.G. Masaryk who, as few others, refused to believe the superstitions about ritual killing. As did Zdeno Auředníček, a young lawyer who defended Hilsner and managed to get the sentence reduced from death to life. Both men never stopped striving for Hilsner's rehabilitation, which however didn't come until nearly a hundred years after the crime.

Fiction – Miniseries

Bohemia Bohéma

NEW

Series of six parts, inspired by the lives of Czech actors, actresses and film makers during the 2nd World War and in the post-war period. Associated with the most-demanded film studios of the time – Prague's Barrandov – were such names as Oldřich Nový, Vlasta Burian, Jaroslav Marvan, Zdeněk Štěpánek and others. But what was the price for keeping a role, and how the actors once applauded by the crowds had to pay for it after the war, when they were accused of collaboration with the Nazis and brought before the "people's court of law"? Bohemia is about the envy, desire to feature on the theatre stage and in the film studio at any cost, and turbulent political changes reflected in the life stories of the crème de la crème of Czech film.

GENDARMES FROM LUHAČOVICE

Gendarmes from Luhačovice Četníci z Luhačovic

NEW

A series of historical crime stories from the beginnings of the so-called First (independent Czechoslovak) Republic, almost a century ago. The war was still going on for a couple of months, influencing the situation. The series describes it as we perhaps do not know it. As regards the public police – they had quickly to get rid of their bad reputation as "Austria's henchmen", and so the main qualification of the commander assuming his duties in the spa town of Luhačovice is the fact that he speaks Czech. All the two newcomers joining his team in the chaos know about police work is what they have learned in a preparatory course and what's written in textbooks. And before they can unpack, there's the first case they will have to deal with.

Gnome

Gnome Trpaslík

NEW

Unconventional comedy series, telling the story of an ordinary family living a routine life and, as is often the case, there's always something that they are not satisfied with. Father Jarda and mother Katka haven't been exactly seeing eye to eye for quite some time, 15-year-old son Luděk studies at high school but would much prefer being a hip-hoper, and youngest Janička would like to become a lawyer, which her parents frown upon. Her model is uncle Vladimír, the most-feared local lawyer. And grandad Václav does everything in his power to avoid moving to a care home for the elderly. Their stereotyped life style in a small town is significantly changed by an encounter with an ancient supernatural force.

I, Mattoni

I, Mattoni Já, Mattoni

NEW

Biographical serial about Heinrich Mattoni, capitalist of the early period of the Austro-Hungarian Empire, founder of the world-famous mineral water bottling company, a man of a dynamic and controversial fate. The thirteen episodes seek to amuse the television viewer by gentle irony, and in the spirit of The Forsyte Saga, they narrate the life story of the entrepreneur, a hero of his time, a great lover desperately longing for genuine human dignity. The backbone of the story is a lifelong, constant struggle between two strong personalities, Heinrich Mattoni and his wife Wilhemina. It is taking place long before the fulfilment of the idea of gender equality, a time of patriarchal masculinity, which adds to its intensity and poignancy. And as in probably most marriages at all times – it is a struggle in which love and hatred are often confused with each other. The narrative about the seller of the today legendary Mattoni mineral water and his energetic wife covers a long period of time, from roughly mid-1830s till 1910. It is set in the picturesque environment of Kyselka Spa, the colonnades of Karlovy Vary (Carlsbad), Schönbrunn, the streets of period Prague and New York.

In Rage Rapl

NEW

Detective Kuneš has a problem once again: he's lambasted the boyfriend of his ex-wife, and is threatened with dismissal from the police service. His high-ranking (female) boss has a solution for him: "removing" him on an internships in a back-of-beyond borderland region. But there's a fly in the ointment. His real mission is to unravel the two-year old case of the murder of policewoman Wágnerová, the investigation of which has reached an impasse. But the crime rate in the borderlands is one of the highest in the whole country – involving smuggling, drug production, poaching, prostitution and murders. Kuneš has to deal with one difficult case after another, and it takes quite some time before he can start doing what he's sent to do, and then he does it in fact by coincidence.

The "In Rage" serial is a follow-up of the series Circus Bukowsky, in which the unconventional detective Kuneš is one of the chief characters and the chief investigator.

THE FIRST REPUBLIC

The First Republic První republika

NEW EPISODES IN PRODUCTION

A saga capturing the atmosphere of the period between 1918 and 1945, referred to as the First (independent Czechoslovak) Republic. First series ends in year 1922.

The gripping serial tells the story of three generations of the ramified Valenta family which had grown rich on commissions received in the period of the Great War and moved from its rural home to the Prague district of Podolí. This suburb of Prague, then still comprising only wasteland and meadows, with a few old factory stacks looming up, is characterised by post-war poverty, but the enterprising Valentas transform it. Reigning in the family is rivalry between the brothers: Jaroslav, the eldest son, grasps the opportunity to expand the family business. He feels that he'll earn more money if he doesn't trade honestly. Vladimír, the younger one, who's just returned from the war, shares neither his brother's ambitions nor his business philosophy. In fact they have only one thing in common: they both love Klára. But only she alone knows why, years ago, she chose Jaroslav for husband. Moreover there's a great mystery: on the day of Klára's engagement to Jaroslav, her parents disappeared. Everybody is convinced that her father embezzled the corporate money and together with his wife fled to America. But both brothers know that they are dead. Who killed them, and what will the investigation of the old pre-war murder reveal?

The serial depicts the upper stratum that contributed most to shaping the First Republic, and set political and social standards. The fates of the characters, representing a variety of social strata, from the élite to the class of workers and peasants, will blend with the period events, recalling some important moments in Czechoslovak history.

Fiction – Series

The Life and Time of Judge A.K. Život a doba soudce A.K.

NEW EPISODES
IN PRODUCTION

Dramatic series portraying the environment of a municipal court of law and the private life of the judges. Adam, the central character, is a divorce and civil law arbitrator. He does not deal with criminals, murders and other serious criminal offences, but just with everyday life in which all parties have their own truth, for which they are ready even to ruin their fellow beings.

It's not a profession of Adam's choice. He wished to be a photographer, working for a newspaper or periodical, travelling round the world, making reportages. But first of all, he's an obedient son of a respected lawyer family... In actual fact, the most interesting thing about him is that he's not cut out for the job at all. He is well-read, thoughtful, good-looking, gentle, introvert, but also vulnerable, sensitive and empathic man. The very opposite of the glorified type of a "civil servant who puts observance of general norms above individual, ethical approach".

Watching the episodes we will see how the negotiating parties enter and withdraw from his life. We will stay with him in the courtroom as well as his bedroom, get to know his family, and have the ever more disquieting opportunity to "share" his thoughts and follow the process of arriving at the judgement.

Gorilla Stories

Gorilí povídání

The series in 13 parts follows up the popular "animal tales" of Václav Chaloupek. This time we will leave the nature of our country and set out to make our acquaintance with attractive African animals. Little Nuru, born to his gorilla parents in the Prague Zoo in 2013, and his Auntie Kamba, the only one among the Prague gorillas that was born in the African wilderness, will be our guides. In each of the episodes, we will learn something about the gorillas' life, and Kamba's narration will take us to her native Africa. Together with Nuru, we will not only see how gorillas live in wild nature, but also get to know other African animals. A short fairy tale is added to every "documentary" part.

Jiří & Otto Bubeníček

The brothers Bubeníček, ranking among the most prominent dancers of the world ballet scene, celebrated their 40th birth anniversary in 2014. On this occasion they both announced the end of their career. The documentary about their life and work shows the last performance of each of them. Jiří parts with the ensemble of the Dresden Semper Opera, and Otto says goodbye to the world-famous Opera in Hamburg. But their "jubilee" of course doesn't mean a total stop of their top-rate interpretation activity, but a gradual passing into a new and just as interesting creative period. The shots of the stage and its background were taken in Dresden, Hamburg, Paris, Dortmund as well as Japan.

Seeing the Home Countryside

Seeing the Home Countryside Krajinou domova

NEW

A narrative documentary series, capturing in an imposing manner the unique character of Bohemian and Moravian landscape in the course of all seasons of the year. In eight parts it presents e.g. mountains rising above the upper forest border, steppes, karsts, hilly regions, uplands and lowlands with floodplain forests... Each piece of countryside is presented in its original and wildest form, including dozens of rare plant and animal species. Equally distinctive are the human settlements, castles, châteaux and villages, none inseparable from the rest. Behind all this is not only the situation of the country in the centre of the European continent, but mainly its geological diversity, from which many of its other characteristics are derived. The series Seeing the Home Countryside is a gripping story about the world around us, singular in terms of its natural and cultural wealth.

The series was made with the use of state-of-the-art filming techniques and technologies, such as time-lapse documenting, specially constructed drones, taking viewers near unique natural phenomena, 4K resolution etc...

Zlatá mládež

NEW EPISODES
IN PRODUCTION

Your life is an extreme situation for them. They are young, pampered, and only just starting to familiarise themselves with the environment and the professions about which they have so far had a vague idea but also great preconceptions.

The Prague "Golden Youth" are learning how people live in other regions of the Czech Republic. Five spoilt youngsters from the capital city have to cope with things to which they are not accustomed – hard manual work and rough living conditions. For five weeks they become now butchers at a slaughterhouse, now inhabitants of a Romany ghetto, participants in an army survival course, peasants in a Czech village in Romania Banat, and nurses in a care home for the elderly.

What lesson will the five protagonists learn during the five weeks? Will they revise their prejudices and their behaviour of pampered youngsters? Will they change their attitude to life under the impression of the strong experiences? Will they prove that they're worth more than may seem at first sight?

Documentaries – Life Style / Health

Herbarium

Herbarium I-IV

Herbář I-IV

Herbarium is an original "herbal show" introducing viewers to common plants and herbs. Its moderators, mums Kateřina and Linda, concentrate on the commonest ones and their use in everyday practice – in cooking but also in the cosmetics industry. The Herbarium second series abounds in wise advice coming from grannies and found in old herbariums, teaching us how to keep in good health and spirit by means of herbs, fruit and vegetables. In the third series our guides look for quick and effective relief from common ailments, such as flu, backache, painful joints or bad mood. They reach for medicinal plants which grow in our surroundings but we are often unaware of their beneficial effects.

The 4th series of the Herbarium focuses on nature, traditions and sustainability, which today concern all of us. All we eat influences our health, mood – and as such also our future. This time the main themes are public catering, ethics of animal keeping and breeding, and above all – environmental protection, bio food, herbs and how to cook with them.

Children Online

Children Online Děti Online

NEW

A world in which an ever higher number of children spend their free time in a virtual world instead of on a real playground...

This documentary film presents the youngest generation as so-called "digital natives", for whom the world of the Internet is an important part of their everyday life and a natural process of discovery. The personal stories of the three protagonists draw attention to some hazards of the Internet – such as cyber-bullying and cyber-grooming. Testifying to the seriousness of these phenomena is not only the rise in the number of children who turn with the above-mentioned problems to helplines, with some unfortunately becoming victims of suicides caused by cyberbullying...

Zátopek Zátopek

Emil Zátopek's life passed through a history that has changed the whole running world. In 1951 he broke the hour for running 20 km and three years later he became the first athlete to break the 10,000 meters under 29 minutes. Zátopek is considered to be one of the greatest runners of the 20th century. He is still the only one who won the 5,000 meters, 10,000 meters, and marathon at the same Olympic games.

Emil was born to a poor family with seven siblings around. He had to start working in the Bata shoe factory when he was sixteen. One afternoon a sports coach came in the factory and chose four blue collar workers to become runners. Emil was one of them. Even though Zátopek claimed he couldn't be a good runner, the doctor persuaded him to try it at least because he could see that Emil really was in a proper condition to compete. When he started to run he suddenly wanted to win. Emil finished second and that was the way everything started... After the great success he began to train in a local athletic club where he developed his own training's methods based on the information he had found in books about the great Finnish Olympian Paavo Nurmi. The training program included e.g. interval training, hypoventilation training, running in heavy boots. None of the runners had trained like that before.

The modern and dynamic film will combine authentic archives and a documentary of today's runners trying to go through Zátopek's training program. The film will also focus on Emil's personal life and his struggle with communist regime.

Leoš Janáček

Leoš Janáček: From the House of the Dead

NEW

Leoš Janáček: Z mrtvého domu

Recording of the opera performance in the National Theatre of Prague. The novel of F. M. Dostoyevsky (also published under the titles Notes or Memoirs from the Dead House), in which he described his personal experiences as the tsar's political prisoner, inspired Leoš Janáček so strongly that he based on it his last opera. The story is situated in a tsarist prison, and the content is a narration of the individual prisoners' life stories. In Janáček's musical rendering, the memories of the suffering and misery which had been the prime origin of the committed crimes are full of love of life, compassion with human pain and thirst for freedom. Featuring Štefan Margita, František Zahradníček, Michal Bragagnolo, Josef Moravec et al.
