Angel of the Lord 2 Anděl Páně 2

NEW

Petronel, an angel, is still working at the Heaven's gates but is confident that he deserves a better function. His everlasting tempter Uriah, a devil, takes up tempting him. All one has to do to know all that God knows is pick an apple from the tree of knowledge! And then, the route to the well-deserved acknowledgement is free. Petronel and Uriah then proceed to argue about the apple, and the results are catastrophic. The precious fruit falls all the way down to the Earth. The confused angel and his friend, the devil-tempter, have to quickly enter the human world, find the apple of Knowledge and bring it back. The night before Saint Nicolase's day they get tangled up in a peculiar whirl. They meet little Agnes and her beautiful mother, a crew of deceitful carolers, the greedy Košťál and the likable Sausage-seller. Before they manage to find the apple and bring it back where it belongs, they first have to endure a great adventure and get through quite a few dangerous setups. And after a row of both human and divine trials, our heroes find out that the true route to knowledge lies in knowing one's own self, in discovering the power of friendship, in love and the will to forgive.

The Good Plumber

The Good Plumber Instalatér z Tuchlovic

NEW

Lubos is a plumber by trade, a very good plumber – though most people see him as a simpleton. He lives with his mother, keeps to a few childhood friends whose views confuse him more and more, loves his local sports teams and retains a boyish standoffishness when it comes to his interactions with women, something that frustrates his mother to no end. Many take one look at him and call him hopeless, a failure. For those who take a second look, though, they find that Lubos is a giver, a sharer, and more times than not he gives you what you need. Unaware – or uncaring – of others' opinions, Lubos lives his life leisurely, with a blithe certainty that he has all he needs – until he meets the wife of a new referral. After that, very little in Lubos's life remains certain or simple.

Joanne, who prefers to be called Jo-Ann, has no time for Albert and like other girls in town is head over heels in love with the school's heartbreaker – Bosák junior. But if all that wasn't enough, Albert must also face up to an unexpected family dispute. Fortunately he is able to come up with one wish which had been promised him by Magic Grandpa. My Uncle Archimedes
Můj strýček Archimedes

NEW

A comedy about a Greek migrant who came to Czechoslovakia in the late 1940s to flee his country's civil war and found a new home here. The story is told through the eyes of the now adult Aris, Archimedes' nephew, who recalls how the escape from Greece changed his uncle's life. Soon after his arrival Archimedes find great support in his neighbour Novák, whose bitter attitude to the Communist regime Archimedes at first fails to comprehend, though he likes him very much. Ultimately, however, he is the only one who understands him. Their joint efforts to help Archimedes settle in Czechoslovakia, and subsequent efforts to help him return to Greece, lead to charming, moving and comic situations.

The Goat Cure

The Goat Cure Kozy léčí

NEW

A picture about rediscovered lust for life and the fact illness doesn't have to mean the end but rather a chance to do something with one's life. Jana sets off with her family to the countryside. At the suggestion of her husband, she buys a delightful cottage. Perhaps in part due to an idiosyncratic neighbour, who keeps goats and immediately works out what has brought Jana from the city to the country. Jana has health problems and she and her husband feel the countryside will benefit her. The family includes two children, Johanna, 16, who doesn't welcome her parents' decision to relocate to the country, and Marek, 8, who settles into the new environment quite quickly. Naturally the relationship between parents and children is impacted by the mother's illness, or rather by the fact the children learn of it much later than everybody else.

NEW EPISODES

Major Remeš's team, reinforced by new member Richard Franěk, is investigating the murder of Monika, an attractive girl killed in an extremely brutal and agonising way. There are several potential perpetrators. One of them, to whom clues lead the detectives, is Osvald, an experienced brute, because of whom the case is growing ever more complicated. Through his agency Remeš's team is joined also by detective Martina Tesařová who investigated Osvald's violent acts in the past when she worked for the vice squad. While checking on potential perpetrators from Monika's surroundings, the detectives still have no idea that their case is evidently closely linked with a certain capable lobbyist. This man, so far basking in the glare of his dubious business, finds himself on too thin ice, and his only rescuer is defence lawyer Kobza, who however has completely different troubles to deal with.

THE LIFE AND TIME OF JUDGE A.K. II

The Life and Time of Judge A.K. II Život a doba soudce A.K. II

NEW EPISODES

This time round, Adam Klos is not judging family disputes, as he did in the first series; instead, he is a criminal judge and is dealing with the most serious crimes and challenging criminal cases. Most of the cases in the second series have been inspired by actual crimes. There is even a fundamental change in Adam's personal life: he is looking after Laura's daughter and is living with his mother, who had been living alone after her husband, Adam's father, died. Adam's neighbours are also creating an important storyline. Very strange things are happening in the villa next door that are stoking his imagination, and when he begins to put two and two together, he begins to discuss his thoughts with his friend Igor... In each episode, viewers first learn what happened in the given case. They thus have the chance to observe how the matter is relativized and obfuscated by everyone during the trial. On one side, there is the public prosecutor analysing with the police the evidence, the proposed sentence and the weaknesses in the defence; on the other, there are the lawyers with the defendants recapitulating their own strategy and looking for holes in the indictment. This all culminates at the court, headed by Adam Klos, where the battle begins and where victory or defeat can mean loss of freedom and a life in ruins.

An animated series in the tradition of classic Czech puppet films about a young Jesus and his family. The stories are not taken from the Bible, but are inspired by it and emphasise compassion, helping others, love and understanding, which are values that are valid regardless of one's faith or religion. Jesus appears as an ordinary child, but in fact possess the miraculous ability to find a remedy for any kind of suffering. We would be able to do the same if we viewed the world with our hearts rather than our heads.

NEW

Puppet stories narrated by not-yet-born Tonda from his Mum's tummy. We learn how his Mum Lucie, who's a painter, and Dad Josef, a joiner, met and fell in love with each other, and in the end got married. Adventures full of imagination and original humour are contributed also by Tonda's grandparents. Granny Coco is Madame Chanel in her heart, while the other Granny plays the violin and modestly calls herself Paganini. And of course there are Grandpas Lojza – the confectioner and pastry cook, and Antonín – the joiner, of whom the house is still full although he's not alive any more. Sometimes we also meet the animals living in the nearby wood. In short – this family is great fun!

Barenboim

NEW

Barenboim: Smetana – Má vlast

A documentary film about the famous conductor, great world figure and his production of the symphonic cycle Má Vlast (My Homeland) by Czech composer Bedřich Smetana. The film is centred on footage from rehearsals of the Vienna Philharmonic. We follow the process of the new production of this world-renowned work. We focus almost exclusively on the conductor, on his face, in which we see strength that transmits his vision of the music to the orchestra. The concentrated emotion is recast into tones before our eyes. This process of creation will run through the entire film from beginning to end. The fledgling music will accentuate spoken thoughts or act as a counterpoint, taking over the unfinished sentence or speaking for itself.

The Ark of Lights & Shadows

NEW

Archa světél a stínů

They met on Friday, getting married secretly on Sunday. They had to run away from home due to their parents wrath, so they rather spent their honeymoons among the cannibals in the South Seas. There they lost their illusions, camera and almost their lives. At the moment when many people would have abandoned filming, Martin and Osa Johnson risked their lives to give the testimony of diminishing wildlife. The film is an authentic footprint of era when filming in Africa itself was more dangerous than lions or malaria. Although they were celebrities admired by Ch. Chaplin or British Royal Family, they are forgotten nowadays. This feature documentary discovers the work and legacy of these outstanding pioneer filmmakers in Africa for the first time in a new perspective.

Romeo and Juliet

Romeo and Juliet

Romeo a Julie

NEW

The Romeo and Juliet ballet by Sergei Prokofiev is one of the most important works of its genre. The production of this world-famous material is the work of Petr Zuska, the head of ballet of the National Theatre in Prague. The reason for the eternal discord between the Montagues and Capulets is not closely defined in the original Shakespearean tragedy. As part of the production, Petr Zuska allows this basic aspect to be interpreted as the eternal conflict of the masculine and feminine principle – two polarities mutually oscillating at the edge of attraction and inevitable antagonism. The conflict of the rational and irrational, good plans and the subsequent uncontrollable downfall. The conflict between man and God is the "golden thread" of the entire performance as a factor in the so-called second plan, which, however, does not stand outside of the story itself, but rather permeates, influences and co-creates it.

Solo For The Two Of Us

Solo For The Two Of Us Sólo pro nás dva

NEW

Petr Zuska's dance theatre piece Solo For The Two Of Us comprises several levels at once, particularly the relationship between a man and a woman, between a person and the demon hiding inside of them, between the individual and the society of which they are a part, and between us and nature. And last but not least, it is a solo for Jaromír Nohavica and Beata Bocek, whose music was Petr Zuska's inspiration this time round.

Solo For Three

Brel – Vysotsky – Kryl – Solo For Three
Brel – Vysockij – Kryl – Sólo pro tři

NEW

A riveting performance inspired by the life and songs of three singing poets from the 2nd half of the last century: Jacques Brel, Vladimir Vysotsky and Karel Kryl. Although they spoke different languages, they could be universally understood. They were the voice of their time, the voice of their nation, but first and foremost the voice of the human heart irrespective of time and space.

This dance theatre piece by director and choreographer Petr Zuska is unique in its symbolism, detailed elaboration of the story and ingenious directorial concept.
