The Spacek Family in the Net of Time

Špačkovi v síti času

A series about the Spacek's family, who happen to find themselves at a conjuring festival. The chief performer – brilliant magician Garibaldini – is in actual fact the director of the mysterious Palace of Time, through which the time of each of us passes and where volumes of human biographies are stored. The meeting of little Mathew Spacek with the magician's daughter triggers off a geysir of very dramatic but also humorous situations. Together with Mathew, we become witnesses of time shifts and the consequent transformations and corrections of the individual characters' fates, and learn about the allocation of recycled time. Throughout the series, the level of the real present-day world and that of fantasy are fading into each other.
