

CZECH TELEVISION PRESENTS FAIRY-TALE

A man and a woman are shown in a close embrace in a snowy, outdoor setting. The man, on the left, has a beard and is wearing a dark fur hat, a green knitted scarf, and a grey wool coat. The woman, on the right, has long, dark, wavy hair and is wearing a white dress with large pink floral embroidery and a light blue skirt. They are both looking towards the camera with gentle expressions. The background shows snow-covered ground and trees under a clear sky.

THE CHRISTMAS STAR (O VÁNOČNÍ HVĚZDĚ)

Even stars contend with the same relationship issues that humans do. No one is perfect and each star has its faults. Even our heroine, Morning Star, whose significant other is the much admired Sirius. One day, the jealous Proxima knocks Morning Star out of the sky, and she lands in a village where our terrestrial hero, the teacher Vaclav, lives. Vaclav is secretly in love with a princess. Morning Star has only a few days to get back into the sky, otherwise she will be extinguished. The only other thing that can keep her alive should she not make it back to her heavenly home in time is pure and unselfish love. Morning Star therefore decides to bring Vaclav and the princess together. Her plans, however, keep being thwarted by Proxima, who flies down to Earth to destroy her. Then there is Sirius's helper, however, who sets out to save her...
