THE GOOD PLUMBER

Instalatér z Tuchlovic

Lubos is a plumber by trade, a very good plumber – though most people see him as a simpleton. He lives with his mother, keeps to a few childhood friends whose views confuse him more and more, loves his local sports teams and retains a boyish standoffishness when it comes to his interactions with women, something that frustrates his mother to no end. Many take one look at him and call him hopeless, a failure. For those who take a second look, though, they find that Lubos is a giver, a sharer, and more times than not he gives you what you need. Unaware – or uncaring – of others' opinions, Lubos lives his life leisurely, with a blithe certainty that he has all he needs – until he meets the wife of a new referral. After that, very little in Lubos's life remains certain or simple.
