

Scent of Oranges

Uzly a pomeranče

WATCH THE SCREENER

The Scent of Oranges narrates the story of both the scars and scents of oranges on the threshold of adulthood. Story of bravery, responsibility, the first love, in another words a story of growing up. In love with a girl that smells of oranges while in a complicated relationship with his father, Darek is gentle strong and devoted to his little sister and their herd of horses. Darek's world is a story about the joy and pain of growing up in the isolated yet beautiful Lusatian Mountains. Here horses are not expensive specimens of racing stables but beings you should love and care for. Not even that is enough in life though, as Darek finds out nearing the Summer's end, closing his childhood definitely. But just like any ending, this is a start of something new.

The One Who Loved You

Ten, kdo tě miloval

WATCH THE SCREENER

Capt. Kalina, a policeman, loving husband and great dad, is killed in a car crash. Now a ghost, he observes the investigation of his own death. Many humorous and unexpected situations arise in the process, because the investigation is being led more by his family than by the police force. By degrees, fragments of circumstantial evidence start to indicate that things may not have been as they seemed. There's a breach of trust: a few photos and words are all it takes for Vanda to suspect that her husband could have been unfaithful to her. Vanda meets up with Kalina's supposed lover Irina, who wants her to complete what Capt. Kalina promised but didn't finish. In the end, with her son's help, Vanda manages to crack the password for a file on her husband's computer that answers all her questions regarding infidelity. More importantly, it is instrumental in the successful resolution of Capt. Kalina's final case.

Golden Sting

Zlatý podraz

WATCH THE SCREENER

A story about true, passionate love, basketball and life in the shadow of politics. The film begins in 1938. The main storyline focuses on the fateful love between František, a young lawyer and athlete, and Michelle, a dancer, who meet at the post-war European Basketball Championships in Geneva. Michelle has suffered a hard life, having escaped from her home because of Stalin and Hitler. Their story, which, in addition to politics, is affected by two contrary individuals - trainer Valentor and functionary Hrabal - culminates in 1951 when Europe has already been divided by the Iron Curtain for several years.

Feature films

THE TRAP

The Trap Past

The film tells the story of the powerlessness of political prisoners in the 1950s and the brutality used to force false confessions. It describes not only the fates of the incarcerated, but also of their loved ones, who suffered harassment and intimidation. It also depicts the pervasive atmosphere of suspicion that was taking its toll on society. The main character is one of the best Czech actresses of the second half of the 1930s and the 1940s, Jiřina Štěpničková, whom the State Security set their sights on in the early 1950s as another of their victims. They led the actress into a trap, provoking her to attempt to flee to the West and then arresting her at the border. After a two-day trial, she was sentenced to fifteen years in prison. Despite her adverse fate, she never gave up and managed to successfully revive her beloved theatre and film career.

The Cage Klec

WATCH THE SCREENER

A psychological drama with elements of a thriller about an unexpected meeting between a lonely pensioner and a youth claiming to be her distant relative. The pensioner – who, once upon a time, was the wife of an influential man, lived in a beautiful house and had a close friendship with a famous female race-car driver – now lives somewhere on the outskirts of Prague in a ground-floor apartment with a view of a courtyard, alone and abandoned by practically everyone. Her life revolves around visits from the postwoman who brings her pension and helping out at the local church. One of the last certainties in her life vanishes when the vicar is transferred elsewhere. At that moment, a good-natured youth enters into old Mrs Galová's life. He tells her he is her distant relative. At long last, Mrs Galová experiences a truly pleasant afternoon. Chatting about common acquaintances and the young man's gallantry brighten her life for a while. But soon Mrs Galová realises that something is not quite right. But what and why? A game of cat-and-mouse begins, but is not clear who in fact is the cat and who the mouse.

WATCH THE SCREENER

A young, full-figured elementary school teacher carefully nurtures her inferiority complex. When accompanying her friend to a course of burlesque dancing, she gets the chance to become attractive despite her ample figure. People around her, however, are not prepared for a "fat girl" in the nude, and she loses her job, her family and her reputation. Will she be able to prove to herself and others that being fat isn't a disability or even a hindrance? Is it better to hide both problem and complex, or fight them head-on with openness?

WATCH THE SCREENER

This intimate psychological drama is set during Christmastime. Its peculiar hero lives alone in the woods where he meets no one, encountering only the things people leave behind in their cabins where he spends the night. He is not a thief. He always cleans up after himself. And he never eats more than one can of their food. That's the life he has chosen. He likes the peace and quiet. He is happier alone than when he must watch people ruin their lives. But this winter has not been a good one. Despite his efforts to avoid everyone, his path is crossed by two dubious characters and a child in need of help...

A two-part drama where one unfortunate gunshot intertwines the fates of seven people and changes their lives forever. Investigator Viktor uses his service gun to protect his daughter when a Rottweiler attacks her. The shot ends up killing the dog, but, unfortunately, the bullet also injures the owner, Mr Osecký. Because of this incident, Viktor is suspended and sentenced unconditionally. When he is finally released from prison, he finds he has hit rock bottom: he has been expelled from the police force, his wife has divorced him and is demanding child support, and he is required to pay Jindřich Osecký a very large sum as compensation for the crime that landed him into prison. His former colleague, Colonel Taraba, finds him a job in a private detective agency, but his salary is not enough to pay all his debts. At the same time, Klára Osecká, who has been missing for several years, escapes her pimps on a German motorway. The police team, headed by Taraba, inform her parents, the Oseckýs, about the serious physical and mental state of their daughter, who has been hospitalised. At the same time, Taraba questions the suspect, Lukáš Kulhánek, from whose car Klára escaped. Jindřich Osecký and Viktor Mojžíš cross paths again after many years.

Monsters of the Shore

Vodník

WATCH THE SCREENER

This three-part detective story takes place in two timelines: shortly before the Velvet Revolution at the end of the communist era in the late eighties, and in the present day. In the first period the case is being dealt with by the crime division of communist Czechoslovakia under Major Voženil. In the present day Marie Výrová is uncovering the shortcomings of the investigation by the police of that time and points out the reasons that led to them. The detective story crosses over into the genres of horror and psychological family drama. It portrays the destruction of relationships in a family tainted by a long-past, incomprehensibly cruel crime.

Detectives from the Holy Trinity

Five crime miniseries (The Case of the Exorcist, Blue Shadows, Five Dead Dogs, Monsters of the Shore, Living Targets), with the episodes taking place in Olomouc city and its neighbourhood. The chief characters – inspectors Major Výrová, Mráz, and their controversial boss – colonel Vitouš investigate murders and expose a complicated context including e. g. the exorcising ritual, corruption and holdup with robbery.

The investigators, led by Marie Výrová, find themselves confronting a serial murderer. Under great pressure, in a span of just three days, they must figure out the murderer's motive, unravel the pattern by which the murders are taking place, and try to prevent further murders from happening. The dramatic plot takes place among former classmates, now socially established thirty-five-year-olds: an entrepreneur, a doctor, a deputy mayor, his wife, and a well-to-do property owner. They are all also members of an exclusive archery club. An unknown shooter with a sporting crossbow is after their lives.

A six-part psychological story of a man who decides to be a police officer, and a good one at that. This is a crime series with several plots and surprising twists that follows the story of a promising criminal investigator who believes in justice and honour and who refuses to remain indifferent to his superiors' corrupt ways. He is subsequently punished for this, however, and so the investigator finds himself under investigation. The police force is an organisation that is bound by hard-set rules. Its function is intrinsically interconnected with another organisation: the state. Besides the many rules necessary to run it, there are also a great deal of unwritten rules. Our hero has to work within this interlinked maze that both affects and shapes him.

In the second season Major Kuneš remains the same original character with controversial views, just as we know him from the first season. The Jáchymov branch, which had long been a thorn in the side of the bureaucratic apparatus, is dissolved as part of restructuring, with Lieutenant Colonel Rohan being assigned with leading the crime unit in Ústí nad Labem. It doesn't take long before he brings in all of "his" crime investigators. He promises them the moon, but even though he doesn't live up to any of it, the old crew is back together. The main storyline is the highly active criminal Željko Čubrić, who keeps the crime team racking up overtime. In the case of Rohan there is still the unresolved motive of personal revenge, which complicates the whole case further.

The Princess and Half the Kingdom

Princezna a půl království

IN PRODUCTION

Honza, an ordinary peasant, kills a dragon and gets the princess and half the kingdom. And there, where other fairy tales end, this one begins. Neither the princess nor her royal parents like ordinary Honza. He has no manners and not even the teacher of court etiquette knows how to overcome that particular obstacle. Enter the princess' former suitor, the ruler of the neighbouring kingdom, the selfish King Egon, who had left the princess at the mercy of the dragon. The princess is fooled by his excuses and forgives him. Honza truly loves the princess and when he understands just how unhappy she is because of the entire situation, he cancels the wedding and returns to his family cottage. The princess leaves with Egon for his kingdom, but once there she learns his true nature. When she wants to flee, Egon imprisons her. Luckily the princess' counsellor, the teacher of court etiquette, the knight Valerián, manages to escape. He is convinced that Honza is the only one who can save the princess. But can Honza learn courtly manners so that he can infiltrate Egon's castle without being detected and save the princess a second time?
