The Cage

The Cage Klec

A psychological drama with elements of a thriller about an unexpected meeting between a lonely pensioner and a youth claiming to be her distant relative. The pensioner – who, once upon a time, was the wife of an influential man, lived in a beautiful house and had a close friendship with a famous female race-car driver – now lives somewhere on the outskirts of Prague in a ground-floor apartment with a view of a courtyard, alone and abandoned by practically everyone. Her life revolves around visits from the postwoman who brings her pension and helping out at the local church. One of the last certainties in her life vanishes when the vicar is transferred elsewhere. At that moment, a good-natured youth enters into old Mrs Galová's life. He tells her he is her distant relative. At long last, Mrs Galová experiences a truly pleasant afternoon. Chatting about common acquaintances and the young man's gallantry brighten her life for a while. But soon Mrs Galová realises that something is not quite right. But what and why? A game of cat-and-mouse begins, but is not clear who in fact is the cat and who the mouse.

A family drama capturing the story of a period when socialism was alive, work conditions resembled capitalism and the last of the last was first. In Czechoslovakia's newest city Havířov records were broken, but so were people – in the name of the Red Star shining above the region's showcase, the Dukla mine, which was about to switch from a six-day to five-day working week. This two-part dramatic story from the period of the collapse of the Austro-Hungarian Empire captures the key events leading up to the creation of an independent Czechoslovak state in October 1918. Its main protagonists are Alois Rašín and Karel Kramář, who played a fundamental role in realising this long-time dream of the Czechs and Slovaks. They organised a secret conspiratorial network and provided the exile government with much-needed information about the monarchy. They experienced first-hand the fact that patriotism includes the willingness to sacrifice oneself for one's country when they were sentenced to death for treason. In the first government of the newly created republic, however, one of them became Minister of Finance, and the other even Prime Minister.

Monsters of the Shore

WATCH THE SCREENER

Monsters of the Shore Vodník

This three-part detective story takes place in two timelines: shortly before the Velvet Revolution at the end of the communist era in the late eighties, and in the present day. In the first period the case is being dealt with by the crime division of communist Czechoslovakia under Major Voženil. In the present day Marie Výrová is uncovering the shortcomings of the investigation by the police of that time and points out the reasons that led to them. The detective story crosses over into the genres of horror and psychological family drama. It portrays the destruction of relationships in a family tainted by a long-past, incomprehensibly cruel crime.

Detectives from the Holy Trinity

Five crime miniseries (The Case of the Exorcist, Blue Shadows, Five Dead Dogs, Monsters of the Shore, Living Targets), with the episodes taking place in Olomouc city and its neighbourhood. The chief characters – inspectors Major Výrová, Mráz, and their controversial boss – colonel Vitouš investigate murders and expose a complicated context including e. g. the exorcising ritual, corruption and holdup with robbery.

The dramatic plot takes place among former classmates, now socially established thirty-five-year-olds: an entrepreneur, a doctor, a deputy mayor, his wife, and a well-to-do property owner. The Jáchymov branch, which had long been a thorn in the side of the bureaucratic apparatus, is dissolved as part of restructuring, with Lieutenant Colonel Rohan being assigned with leading the crime unit in Ústí nad Labem. It doesn't take long before he brings in all of "his" crime investigators. He promises them the moon, but even though he doesn't live up to any of it, the old crew is back together. The main storyline is the highly active criminal Željko Čubrić, who keeps the crime team racking up overtime. Even the Valenta family have to adjust to the dangers of the era. They have to hold together more than ever before, as the portents are not good. The family villa in Podolí is occupied mainly by Jaroslav Valenta, Marie and Jaroslav's younger brother Freddy. Irena is getting used to her new role as a wife, but remains cold toward Lippi. His childhood friend there Jiří is a suspect in the brutal murder of their mutual acquaintance – Denis. Disrupting the seemingly quiet life in the little town, Lukáš uncovers the closely guarded secrets and unexpected context of Denis's murder, which does not suit the locals in the least, as he learns that there is more than one person responsible for Denis's death.
