Gangster KA

WATCH THE SCREENER

Gangster Kay examines the mechanism of organised crime, shines light into a six-billion-crown 'tunnel' and tries to objectively show the birth of a true gangster. Radim Kraviec, alias Kay, is distinguished by his high intelligence and his talent for the perfect racket. Where others reach for guns, he uses trickery, an army of lawyers and his humungous capital. He steals billions of crowns from the state at the blink of an eye. He is, however, well aware of the line he cannot cross. That line is the physical elimination of anybody from his circle.

Gangster Kay: The African

Gangster KA: Afričan

WATCH THE SCREENER

The conclusion of a dark story, Gangster Kay: The African emphasises the fact that evil, once committed, cannot just be forgotten. What are the mechanisms of organised crime? Can anyone defeat it? After the incomprehensible escape right out from under the noses of the police, Kraviec slips out of the Czech Republic. A new stage of his life of crime begins. Kay no longer has anything to lose. Only now does all the waste he left behind float to the surface. Kay settles down on the Seychelles, in his hand a bill of exchange for 80 million that could cause the immediate downfall of the prime minister and the government.

Scent of Oranges

Uzly a pomeranče

WATCH THE SCREENER

The Scent of Oranges narrates the story of both the scars and scents of oranges on the threshold of adulthood. Story of bravery, responsibility, the first love, in another words a story of growing up. In love with a girl that smells of oranges while in a complicated relationship with his father, Darek is gentle strong and devoted to his little sister and their herd of horses. Darek's world is a story about the joy and pain of growing up in the isolated yet beautiful Lusatian Mountains. Here horses are not expensive specimens of racing stables but beings you should love and care for. Not even that is enough in life though, as Darek finds out nearing the Summer's end, closing his childhood definitely. But just like any ending, this is a start of something new.

The One Who Loved You

Ten, kdo tě miloval

WATCH THE SCREENER

Capt. Kalina, a policeman, loving husband and great dad, is killed in a car crash. Now a ghost, he observes the investigation of his own death. Many humorous and unexpected situations arise in the process, because the investigation is being led more by his family than by the police force. By degrees, fragments of circumstantial evidence start to indicate that things may not have been as they seemed. There's a breach of trust: a few photos and words are all it takes for Vanda to suspect that her husband could have been unfaithful to her. Vanda meets up with Kalina's supposed lover Irina, who wants her to complete what Capt. Kalina promised but didn't finish. In the end, with her son's help, Vanda manages to crack the password for a file on her husband's computer that answers all her questions regarding infidelity. More importantly, it is instrumental in the successful resolution of Capt. Kalina's final case.

Veteran Veterán

A psychological and conversation-based drama about a former soldier whose journey toward love and a normal life harms him more than the previous twenty years of war. Martin fought as a mercenary for 20 years. He is a man with killer instincts. Now he needs abilities that are completely different. He has to become a more attentive person, someone who knows not only how to take and give punches, but also how to listen and to understand banal concerns. Can a former elite soldier handle normal life, hold on to the woman he loves and find work that does not require the special physical abilities of a killer?

THE TRAP

The Trap Past

WATCH THE SCREENER

The film tells the story of the powerlessness of political prisoners in the 1950s and the brutality used to force false confessions. It describes not only the fates of the incarcerated, but also of their loved ones, who suffered harassment and intimidation. It also depicts the pervasive atmosphere of suspicion that was taking its toll on society. The main character is one of the best Czech actresses of the second half of the 1930s and the 1940s, Jiřina Štěpničková, whom the State Security set their sights on in the early 1950s as another of their victims. They led the actress into a trap, provoking her to attempt to flee to the West and then arresting her at the border. After a two-day trial, she was sentenced to fifteen years in prison. Despite her adverse fate, she never gave up and managed to successfully revive her beloved theatre and film career.

The Cage Klec

WATCH THE SCREENER

A psychological drama with elements of a thriller about an unexpected meeting between a lonely pensioner and a youth claiming to be her distant relative. The pensioner – who, once upon a time, was the wife of an influential man, lived in a beautiful house and had a close friendship with a famous female race-car driver – now lives somewhere on the outskirts of Prague in a ground-floor apartment with a view of a courtyard, alone and abandoned by practically everyone. Her life revolves around visits from the postwoman who brings her pension and helping out at the local church. One of the last certainties in her life vanishes when the vicar is transferred elsewhere. At that moment, a good-natured youth enters into old Mrs Galová's life. He tells her he is her distant relative. At long last, Mrs Galová experiences a truly pleasant afternoon. Chatting about common acquaintances and the young man's gallantry brighten her life for a while. But soon Mrs Galová realises that something is not quite right. But what and why? A game of cat-and-mouse begins, but is not clear who in fact is the cat and who the mouse.

WATCH THE SCREENER - 2. EPISODE

This two-part thriller is based on several specific criminal cases that reach to the upper echelons of the political scene. The degree of their participants' impudence is commensurate to the profit to be gained. Tracking and wiretapping are only a piece in the mosaic of their game plan and thus nobody can be sure who is following whom and why. The main protagonist is a police officer in the Anti-Corruption Department, Tomáš Krása, who is trying to uncover corruption, sometimes on his own, outside of the department. Tomáš joins forces with a self-confident and ambitious reporter and together they dive into the investigation. They run up against cheaters, however, who intend to win at any cost.

A two-part drama where one unfortunate gunshot intertwines the fates of seven people and changes their lives forever. Investigator Viktor uses his service gun to protect his daughter when a Rottweiler attacks her. The shot ends up killing the dog, but, unfortunately, the bullet also injures the owner, Mr Osecký. Because of this incident, Viktor is suspended and sentenced unconditionally. When he is finally released from prison, he finds he has hit rock bottom: he has been expelled from the police force, his wife has divorced him and is demanding child support, and he is required to pay Jindřich Osecký a very large sum as compensation for the crime that landed him into prison. His former colleague, Colonel Taraba, finds him a job in a private detective agency, but his salary is not enough to pay all his debts. At the same time, Klára Osecká, who has been missing for several years, escapes her pimps on a German motorway. The police team, headed by Taraba, inform her parents, the Oseckýs, about the serious physical and mental state of their daughter, who has been hospitalised. At the same time, Taraba questions the suspect, Lukáš Kulhánek, from whose car Klára escaped. Jindřich Osecký and Viktor Mojžíš cross paths again after many years.

WATCH THE SCREENER - 3. EPISODE

The individual episodes of this series are inspired by actual criminal cases that occurred over the course of the last few years in the colourful environment of the industrial city of Ostrava. The series is also connected by the on-going personal story arcs of the main characters, seemingly very different investigators: the competitive Ema and the explosive Honza, who remains unconvinced at the start about Ema, the new head of the department. While investigating cases, they gradually become partners that complement each other professionally and perhaps they even find themselves sharing more than just collegial affection.

Rats Zrádci

The crime series is about the unequal fight between the police and the drug mafia and about moral boundaries that sometimes need to be crossed in this fight. David, who is part of the Czech-Vietnamese drug mafia, never wanted to become a police informant. All he wanted was to sell drugs in peace and not have any money problems. He managed this for some time, but then he was discovered by officer Blažek from the drug squad and ended up telling him almost everything he knew about the Czech-Vietnamese crystal meth trade. After Blažek's murder, however, he ends up alone and with both sides – the police and the mafia – out to get him. He struggles to find a way to save his life.

WATCH THE SCREENER - 3. EPISODE

A six-part psychological story of a man who decides to be a police officer, and a good one at that. This is a crime series with several plots and surprising twists that follows the story of a promising criminal investigator who believes in justice and honour and who refuses to remain indifferent to his superiors' corrupt ways. He is subsequently punished for this, however, and so the investigator finds himself under investigation. The police force is an organisation that is bound by hard-set rules. Its function is intrinsically interconnected with another organisation: the state. Besides the many rules necessary to run it, there are also a great deal of unwritten rules. Our hero has to work within this interlinked maze that both affects and shapes him.

Honza, an ordinary peasant, kills a dragon and gets the princess and half the kingdom. And there, where other fairy tales end, this one begins. Neither the princess nor her royal parents like ordinary Honza. He has no manners and not even the teacher of court etiquette knows how to overcome that particular obstacle. Enter the princess' former suitor, the ruler of the neighbouring kingdom, the selfish King Egon, who had left the princess at the mercy of the dragon. The princess is fooled by his excuses and forgives him. Honza truly loves the princess and when he understands just how unhappy she is because of the entire situation, he cancels the wedding and returns to his family cottage. The princess leaves with Egon for his kingdom, but once there she learns his true nature. When she wants to flee, Egon imprisons her. Luckily the princess' counsellor, the teacher of court etiquette, the knight Valerián, manages to escape. He is convinced that Honza is the only one who can save the princess. But can Honza learn courtly manners so that he can infiltrate Egon's castle without being detected and save the princess a second time?

A YEAR IN THE LIFE OF CHOREOGRAPHER JIŘÍ KYLIÁN

A Year in the Life of Choreographer Jiří Kylián Jeden rok v životě choreografa Jiřího Kyliána

Two special events in the 2018-2019 season in the life of the world-renowned, Czech-born choreographer. The first important event was the gala premiere at the National Theatre held on the occasion of the 100th anniversary of the foundation of the Czechoslovak Republic. The enormously successful programme entitled Kylián – Bridges of Time presented the audience with four ballets that Master Kylián trained with the National Theatre Ballet. The other was the awards ceremony in March 2019 where Jiří Kylián received the Knight's Order of the French Academy of Fine Arts. Jiří Kylián took us behind the scenes of both events and supplemented them with his extremely wise but humble commentary on his life and work.
